

NAME: FLETT, George

PARISH: Firth, Scotland

ENTERED SERVICE: 1796

DATES: b. ca. 1775
d. 10 June 1850

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*:	Position:	Post:	District:	HBCA Reference:
*An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May
1796, 20 June-21 Aug.	Travelled from Stromness to York Factory on King George			C1/400, HBRS II p. 213
1796-1802	Labourer	York (inland)	York	HBRS II p. 213
1802-1810	Boatman	York (inland)	York	B239/d/125-139, HBRS II p. 213
1810-1822	Assistant Trader, Master	Moose Lake	York	HBRS II p. 213
1822-1823	Acting Clerk	Moose Lake	York	HBRS II p. 213
1823	Retired to Red River			HBRS II p. 213
1850, 10 June	Died at Red River			HBRS II p. 213 A/36/1b, fo 85-87

Wife: Peggy Whitford, daughter of James Peter Whitford and an Indian woman, "Sarah", m. 7 Dec. 1823 (HBRS II p. 213)

Children: five sons baptised 1823, another in 1825, and another in 1832 (HBRS II p. 213)

James Flett, bt. 7 Dec, 1823 in St. Johns

John Flett, b. 5 Aug. 1815

George Flett, b. 10 Feb. 1817

William Flett, b. 1820

David Flett, bt. 7 Dec. 1823

Joseph Flett, bt. 20 Feb. 1825

Margaret Flett, bt. 10 Aug. 1828

Robert Flett, bt. 27 May 1832 (Morin, Metis Families Genealogical Compendium, 1996, pp. 387-388)

Described by George Simpson in 1822 as "A faithful interested old Servant, deficient in Education but a good trader, getting infirm and recommended to the notice of the Honble Committee" (HBRS II p. 213)

