

Children's Therapy Network of Manitoba

Who are we?

The Children's Therapy Network of Manitoba (CTNM) is a coordinated program of service providers and provincial government departments of Education, Families and Health. This program updates and replaces the Children's Therapy Initiative (CTI).

What services are available?

Therapy services include:

- Speech-language pathology
Helps with talking, understanding and using words, making sounds, speaking in sentences, making and playing with friends, stuttering, communicating using pictures and gestures or technology and swallowing.
- Physiotherapy
Helps with learning to sit, moving (rolling, crawling, walking, jumping and running), improving strength, balance and coordination, using equipment such as braces, walkers or bikes.
- Occupational therapy
Focuses on eating, dressing, using the toilet, paying attention, making and playing with friends, learning new play skills, understanding sensory needs, using hands for play and everyday tasks, participation in home and community.
- Audiology
Helps with hearing, hearing loss, identifying types of hearing loss, fitting hearing aids and other devices, understanding hearing loss, functioning in day care or classroom, auditory processing.

Who is eligible to receive services?

Children and youth who need help with speech, hearing, movement, learning and/or social development.

Where are services available?

CTNM is available in every region of the province.

Family-Centred Service

The CTNM supports and provides a family-centred service. If you have a concern about your child in areas such as speech, hearing, movement, learning and/or social development, call us – we can help!

How do I make a referral?

Contact the CTNM region where the child lives. Parents can refer directly to CTNM along with professions such as teachers, physicians, childcare workers, public health nurses, etc.
