Following Oral Questions, Madam Speaker made the following ruling:

On April 22, 1999 the Honourable Member for Sturgeon Creek raised a point of order about the Honourable Member for Transcona not directing his comments through the chair during debate of Bill 17.

Having read the Hansard transcript, it is evident that the Honourable Member for Sturgeon Creek did have a point of order. The Honourable Member for Transcona repeatedly addressed his comments directly to the Honourable Minister of Culture, Heritage and Citizenship, rather than directing his comments through the chair.
