WHEREAS girls and Aboriginal children are disproportionately victimized by sexual exploitation; and

WHEREAS community groups such as the Sexually Exploited Youth Coalition are at the forefront of addressing this problem through various prevention and intervention initiatives; and

WHEREAS the Provincial Government is proud to partner with these groups to address this problem, through initiatives such as Tracia's Trust and Manitoba's Sexual Exploitation Strategy; and

WHEREAS the Provincial Government is also taking action by expanding endeavours such as the Outreach Project aimed at reducing the number of run-away youth that are at increased risk of exploitation; by engaging in training and specialized foster care support for foster parents of sexually exploited youth; and by coordinating the work of 22 organizations which combat the sexual exploitation of children.
